About Expiring ITINs:

- If your ITIN was not included on a U.S. Federal Tax Return at least once for tax years 2020, 2021, and 2022, your ITIN will expire on December 31, 2023.
- If ITINs were issued before 2013, they expire on a rolling basis.
- Apply for or renew your ITIN as soon as possible to avoid delays. They may take up to several months to process.
- You do NOT need to pay to renew or apply for an ITIN if you are using one of our VITA CAA approved sites below.
- If you previously submitted a renewal application and it was approved, you do not need to renew it again.

As an ITIN filer, you may qualify for tax credits:

The California Earned Income Tax Credit (CalEITC) is a cash-back credit for working Californians- including those filing with an ITIN - up to $3,000.

The Young Child Tax Credit is a credit from the State of California that ITIN filers with children under the age of 6 may also qualify for up to $1,083 per eligible tax return.

The Child Tax Credit is a federal tax credit that ITIN filers can claim for their qualifying children who have a valid Social Security Number. Certain taxpayers may receive a refund of up to $2,000 per qualifying child.
